THE CITY OF ERFURT

Erfurt is situated in the center of Germany, 300 km south of Berlin and 260 km east of Frankfurt in the state of Thuringia. The pretty streets, stores, cafes and student pubs define the image of Erfurt just as much as the historical landmarks of the city: the city hall, citadel, Merchants' bridge and St. Mary's Cathedral. This well preserved medieval city is host to one of the most famous Christmas markets in Germany every December and is home to approximately 215,000 residents, of which 10,000 are students.

Erfurt's proximity to Weimar, the home of Goethe and Schiller, and Eisenach, the location of the famous Wartburg Castle, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, makes it a true cultural capital. For nature lovers, the nearby Thuringian Forest and “Rennsteig” trail provide ideal opportunities for running and hiking in the summer as well as cross-country skiing in the winter.
