

LAB_KOLONIALES ERBE

JUNE 26, '24
12 – 4 P.M.

Auditorium "Zur Rosen"; Johannisstraße 13, 07743 Jena; online

Post- and Decolonial Memory Activism in a European Perspective

Linda Boukhris (Paris): The production of a counter-hegemonic narrative of the urban space as a reparative praxis: archiving futures in the suburbs of Paris

Jadel Andretto (RIC, Bologna): "Odonomastic guerrilla warfare": The recontextualization of colonial street names in the Cirenaica district of Bologna and beyond

Jonathan Bach (New York): Imperial ambiguities: Colonial pasts in Germany's present

Johanna Kreft (Birmingham): Beyond 'colonial amnesia' – Transformative postcolonial memory activism in Germany

Miriam Friz Trzeciak (Cottbus): Multidirectional forms of remembering and forgetting. The example of a post-colonial and post-socialist city tour

Moderation: Sahra Rausch (Jena)

This event will be hybrid. If you would like to participate online or in presence, please register at koloniales-erbe-thueringen@uni-erfurt.de.

