

UNIVERSITÄT ERFURT

ANNOUNCEMENT

Doctoral Scholarships

The University of Erfurt is a research-oriented, internationally orientated university with a specific range of subjects in the fields of cultural studies, humanities, social sciences and education. On a campus nearby the Old Town of Erfurt, doctoral candidates benefit from an innovative promotion, mentoring and an excellent research infrastructure.

The University of Erfurt awards scholarships to doctoral candidates as part of the Christoph Martin Wieland Graduate Forum from 1 January 2025.

The doctoral scholarship includes a funding of €1,400 per month with an extra family-allowance (€300 for one / the first child plus €150 for any further child). The scholarship is granted for three years and can be extended for another year.

Beyond financial support, the University of Erfurt offers its scholarship holders the following benefits:

- support formats for researching and networking with other academics;
- an „Academic Skills Training“ to promote interdisciplinary academic expertise;
- platforms to communicate the one's own research to the general public (e.g. Erfurt Science Slam).

Further information on the announcement, the funding requirements and the application documents can be found on the website of the University of Erfurt:
