

Workshop

Mapping the Red Sea

22.–24.05.2024

Centre for Transcultural Studies / Perthes Collection, Gotha

Wednesday, 22.05.2024

Suggestions on the Red Sea as a Centre of Networks since Ancient Times

18:00–19:00 | Wolbert Smidt (Hamburg/Jena)

Thursday, 23.05.2024

Welcome

Maps of the Red Sea: A Selection of Maps from the Perthes Collection

9:00–12:00 | Iris Schröder (Erfurt/Gotha)

12:00–14:00 | Lunch Break

Geography and Politics Between Northeast Africa and Europe: Ego-Documents as an Approach to a Relational History of Knowledge

14:00–15:00 | Albert Feierabend / Sara Müller (Erfurt/Gotha)

Charts to Maps – August Petermann Mapping the Red Sea

15:00–16:00 | Verena Pichler (Massing)

16:00–16:30 | Coffee Break

From Shore to Ships – Maritime Exploration of Red Sea

16:30–17:30 | Tobias Mörike (Wien)

The Debarkation of King Kaleb's Amphibious Armada at the Red Sea Coast of Yemen in 525 AD

17:30–18:30 | Yohannes Gebreselassie Shane (Erfurt/Gotha)

Friday, 24.05.2024

Being a Slave in the Coastal Areas of the Red Sea: Insights from Scattered Sources on Several Slave Biographies

9:00–10:00 | Wolbert Smidt (Hamburg/Jena)

"Die Östlichste Spitze Afrikas": The Cartography of Somaliland by Josef Menges and the Gotha Publishing House

10:00–11:00 | Andreu Martínez d'Alòs-Moner (Santiago de Compostela)

11:00–11:30 | Coffee Break

The Agency of the Populations of the Western Shores of the Red Sea in the Networks of Knowledge Dissemination in the 19th Century

11:30–12:30 | Fesseha Berhe Gebregergis (Gotha)

Wrap-Up and Final Discussion

12:30–13:15 | Felix Schürmann (Frankfurt)/Iris Schröder (Erfurt/Gotha)/Wolbert Smidt (Hamburg/Jena)

GERDA HENKEL
STIFTUNG

UNIVERSITÄT
ERFURT
Forschungskolleg
Transkulturelle Studien