

Short CV (Enrico Piergiacomi)

Enrico Piergiacomi received his PhD from the University of Trento in 2016. He was recipient of the international grant The Reception of Lucretius and Roman Epicureanism from the Middle Ages to the Eighteenth century (2019-2020) and fellow at Villa I Tatti | The Harvard Center for Italian Renaissance Studies (2021-2022), where he carried on the project The Pleasures of Piety. The History of a Neglected Religious Tradition. He specializes in ancient/modern theological thought and its moral/political implications. He published two books: Storia delle antiche teologie atomiste (Sapienza Editrice, Rome 2017) and Amicus Lucretius. Gassendi, il “De rerum natura” e l’edonismo cristiano (De Gruyter, Berlin-New York 2022). At present, he is visiting fellow at the Center for Religious Sciences of the Bruno Kessler Foundation of Trento and, from January 2023 onwards, he will be a researcher at the University of Zürich, within the ERC project The Just City: The Ciceronian Conception of Justice and Its Reception in the Western Tradition.
